PRODUCT INFORMATION

Percentage of products grown/produced by: Self: ___% | Others in Ontario: ___% | Outside Ontario: ___%.

- Transparency at a Farmer's Market is of the utmost importance. Vendors must identify the origin of all products being sold, including if grown/produced by self or others.
- Vendors may not allocate or sublet portions of their space to other growers for the purpose of selling goods.
- If your booth intends to support a vendor co-operative (where vendors work together to sell each other's products), please include this information below.
- All products must be clearly labelled on booth displays including the origin noted below and price.

Please list all products being sold below or include a separate list with your application:

Grown by Self	Others in Ontario	Outside Ontario

NOTE: Vendors MAY NOT allocate or sublet portions of their space to other growers for the purpose of selling goods, without the express written consent of the Milton Farmers' Market.

VEHICLE INFORMATION

- NOTE: Stall location may be dependent upon the size of the vehicle used by the vendor.
- The Milton Chamber of Commerce reserves the right to allocate final space locations.
- Cube Vans and larger vehicles may be required to unload product and park elsewhere during the market day. Vendors must stay within the defined area of their booth (marked with white paint on the track edge).

Please indicate the size of your vehicle you will be bringing to the market.
